

A 100% Renovation project has occurred at Mythos Palace Resort & Spa!

Press Release, July 2018

Mythos Palace Resort & Spa proceeded to a new renovation investment and category upgrade from 4 to 5 stars. The operations for the renovation started in November 2017 and ended in May 2018. The result is extraordinary! A completely renewed environment of luxury and premium all-inclusive services, where Guests have the chance to enjoy their carefree summer days.

The new modern exteriors were designed to ensure that guests, either couples or families, are offered comfortable and luxury holidays in the best possible way. The impressive reception area was given such a modern look that every guest that enters, immediately becomes impressed by the glamorous environment.

The hotel rooms have been completely renovated and have been decorated with new furniture, creating modern and bright spaces with all the necessary comforts that every demanding guest requires. The bathrooms have been equipped with modern furniture that highlights every corner. The use of sophisticated mirrors at specific points give a sense of wider spaces, while at the same time the color palette chosen for the walls and furniture give an earthy tone, creating an airy mood and relaxing sensation. Furthermore, all rooms are equipped with free safe boxes, iron & iron board and mini bar, filled with all the necessary refreshing drinks.

In the hotel area, a New Italian Restaurant is added to offer new gastronomical experiences and more dining options as part of the premium all-inclusive package. Here, the color palette changes its mood and becomes more intense with an emphasis on red and black tones found in every furniture and space. What is more, the introduction of the Sweet Corner comes to complete the external hotel area that satisfies every sweet and ice-cream lover. Also, guests can connect to Wi-Fi for free in all hotel areas.

The goal of the Hotel Managers for this project was to upgrade the beautiful environment of Mythos Palace Resort & Spa while also maintaining the friendly and
